

Greetings from the LEFTBANK Birkenhead

Get a stamp from each organisation involved and get a free drink at Bloom Building!

Leftbank is designed to showcase some of the great things happening in Argylye, Hamilton, Priory area of Birkenhead. We want to shout that we are here, share what we do but ultimately get you involved! The first walk-around showcases great art, VR, music and much more but this is just the start. We want this to become the regions biggest and best coming together of creatives, thinkers, shakers, movers, doers and makers in this blossoming creative community. Its great to have you with us.

Who's involved and What's on:

Future Yard, 12 - 8pm: Hosting Super Cool Drawing Machine, an exhibition of musician's 'other' artwork, between 12pm and 8pm. Featuring paintings, sculpture and drawings from 30 internationally-renowned artists.

Make, 2pm-8pm: Make CIC will be presenting a group exhibition from some of our wonderful studio members as well as open studios, stalls and the grand opening of our cafe.

Bloom Building, 2pm-Late: name of the game here is to be your best version of your weekend self. All in the name of reimagining where melancholia and anxiety sit in the modern world, what support looks like and how art can be a catalyst for change. Bloom Bar and Café open all day with all proceeds to the ODC.

Convenience @ Bloom, 2pm-late: "In Cahoots" Launch event- A full day of all things contemporary and community art. We've got live performances, interactive artworks, film screenings, and musicians and DJs throughout this immense all dayer. With mindfulness and VR Mindfulness sessions lead the ODC team. (In Cahoots is our focused public programme offering free to access exhibitions, workshops, talks, and more across the next 12 months! Pick up a free copy of the programme on the day)

Spider project CIC, 10am-4pm : Spider project CIC will open its doors publicly.

Scenegrph Studios: Scenegrph will have an augmented reality experience at each venue, keep a look out for their AR / QR posters at each venue.
